

Daily Student Objectives, Learning Outcomes, and Content Questions for the Students.

- + What would you like to learn this year in history?
- + Where is your seat in the classroom?
- + What will we be covering in the class this school year?
- + What is our first unit of studying going to be?
- + What are the rules of the classroom?
- + What is my first homework assignment?

- + What book or song has made a major impact on your life? What impact did it have?
- + What are the chapter objectives for this unit?
- + What are the learning goals for this unit?
- + What is the notebook assignment?
- + What is my homework assignment?

- + What book influenced People's views about slavery in the South?
- + Who wrote the book?
- + Explain how southerners viewed slavery.
- + Identify similarities and differences between the North and the South before the Civil War.
- + How did the South's views of slavery differ from the North?
- + How was the North and South similar and different before the Civil War?

- + List three differences that appeared between the North and the South.
- + Why did Southerners feel that they represented the true spirit of the American Revolution?
- + What two major technologies demonstrate the difference between the two regions? How?
- + List and explain the events that led to the annexation of Texas.
- + Describe the reasons for the Mexican War.
- + Defend why the Wilmot Proviso led to conflict with Mexico.

- + The term manifest destiny was coined by John L. O'Sullivan. What new words or terms have been coined in your lifetime? How do you think they have changed society?
- + What events led to the annexation of Texas?
- + What events led to the Mexican War?
- + How did the Wilmot Proviso led to the Mexican War?
- + Label the region of the world that was effected by the Mexican war.

Daily Student Objectives, Learning Outcomes, and Content Questions for the Students.

- + What is the name of the treaty that ended the Mexican War?
- + On the map label the areas that Mexico had to relinquish to the United States.
- + Explain what was accomplished by the Compromise of 1850.
- + List the important issues discussed in the Lincoln-Douglas debate.

- + Why did Stephen Douglas propose the Kansas-Nebraska Act? What was the outcome of the proposal?
- + What led to “Bleeding” Kansas?
- + How did the issue of slavery effect politics?
- + What was the Lecompton Constitution? Why was there controversy over its creation?
- + What issues were debated in the Lincoln-Douglas debate?
- + What was the effect of John Brown’s raid?

- + List the concerns of the Lower South that led to secession from the Union.
- + Label the election of 1860 and explain how it demonstrated a split between the North and South.
- + Explain how John Brown’s raid increased tensions between the North and the South.
- + Why was the election of 1860 a cause of the Civil War? What did it demonstrate about the country at that time?
- + Why did the Lower South break away from the Union after Lincoln’s election?
- + What event started the American Civil War?